

Doubt—Extras in the Everyday Life

Alice, 59—Tom's mother

House wife. Initiated the move to Paris. Love her life. Always fiddling with her jewels and rings.

Claire, 35—The director

Recently back from maternal leave. "On the other side of you" is her third big production. Knows what she wants. Quite manly body language.

Cecilia, 30—Double-date couple, her

Works with interior decoration. Hopes to be a mother in a not too distant future. Likes to potter about with things.

Cora, 38—The talent scout

Gave Tom his first main character. Likes Tom a lot. Very physical and touches the people she talks to.

Miriam, 26—The bartender

Pours beer and mixes drinks at Tom's favourite joint since a couple of years. Is always busy at the bar.

Jennie, 30—The Ex

Tabloid journalist. Tom's first love in upper-secondary school. Dresses well, likes to party and laugh.

Mary-Anne, 43—Julia's new mother

Urbane, fun woman with happy, continental behaviour. Likes to fiddle with her hair.

Robert, 59—Tom's dad

Retired, rotund restaurant owner. Has finally settled down in Paris. Touches his big stomach all the time.

Link, 24—Handyman

Studies at the university and works extra at the theatre. Helpful but very dependent. Seeks praise and recognition from everyone.

Garrison, 33—Double-date couple, him

Scrap sculptor with a fad for sailing. Old study-buddy with Tom. A manly man.

Kenneth, 45—Singing coach

Secure and patient middle-aged man. Likes to underline what he says with overly clear body-language.

Max, 42—The man Julia meets at the jogging track

Teacher for kind aged 10-12. Lives alone in a nice, inherited villa. Very relaxed and needs to prove nothing to nobody.

Max and Julia have a habit of meeting at the jogging track and have started saying hi to each other.

John, 31 – Real estate agent

Owns his own firm. Searches relentlessly for Julia's dream apartment. Open and secure, but perhaps a tad stressed.

Samson, 58—Julia's dad
